

Parent Survey Results March 2021

Overwhelmingly, our parents' survey results were positive following the planned return to school by all children on March 8th 2021.

'We have always been well communicated with and our minds completely put at ease. We particularly like the focus on kindness and everyone's wellbeing. A truly inspirational school... Thank you so much. You are fantastic, particularly through such difficult and uncertain times.'

'The school have been brilliant and organised. They have made (home learning) straightforward and easy to access. They have helped with individual children struggling.'

'The school have been supportive and have responded to any questions we have had which has been much appreciated.'

'The Zoom classes have been really helpful for the children and the interaction with their teachers was beneficial to them for learning, and also we think their well being to see other people.'

Actions as a result of our survey results:

- We will maintain our communications with you via emails, newsletters and phone calls for parent consultations. Parents are encouraged to contact us via phone or email enquiries@tattershallprimary.lincs.sch.uk if you need to let us know anything relating to your child, have a query or require support. Our open-door policy will return once Covid-10 restrictions are removed.
- If we have to change to home learning again for any 'bubbles' we will ensure we continue to provide differentiated work and individual 1:1 Zoom sessions to support those children who are struggling to complete the work set at home.
- We will continue to monitor the well being of our children by talking to them and providing lessons where they can express their feelings. We will also make sure they know who they can talk to if they have a concern. We will continue to deliver assemblies where our school values are shared and celebrated.

Thank you for your participation.
