Outstanding School Music Department

We are proud to announce, that having been selected as one of 7 finalists, out of over 50 primary and secondary school entries, in the category of Outstanding School Music Department at the Music and Drama Awards 2024 we were awarded a Highly Commended certificate at the Grosvenor Hotel, London last week presented by Cerrie Burnell, former CBBC presenter.

This is a remarkable achievement, as we were the only school to receive this commendation in this category, which rewards the quality of our fully inclusive music curriculum, the level of engagement by our children, our collaboration with Lincolnshire Music Service, our committed staff and the free lessons, instruments and after-school provision we provide to overcome barriers in our small rural primary school.

The awards are designed to celebrate excellence and the many positive comments we received at the ceremony recognised the dedication and exceptional achievement of our team and our amazing children in their music learning.
